

Beneath Thy Compassion

Подъ Твою Милость

Sung at the Conclusion of Great Compline, and other times, as desired.

Obikhod
(D. Bortniansky)

Slowly, but freely

Be - neath thy com - pas - sion, we take re - fuge, O

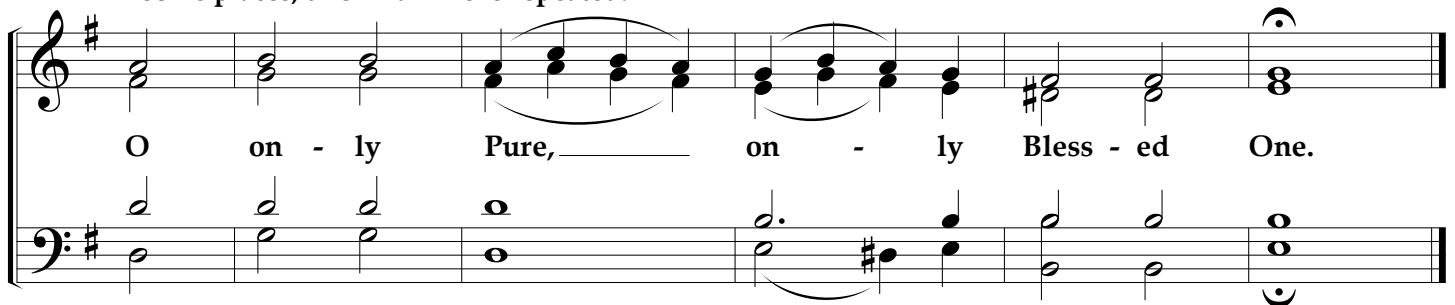

Vir - gin The - o - to - kos; de - spise not our prayers

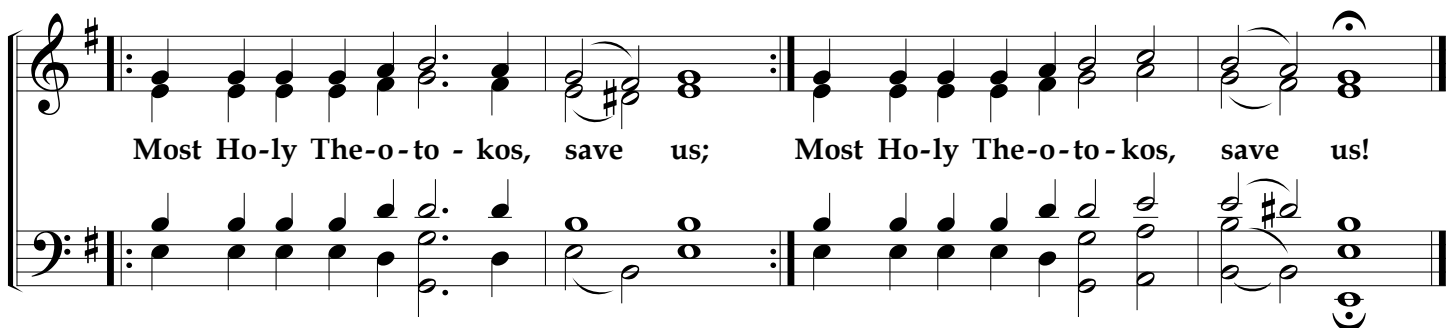

in our ne - ces - si - ties, but de - liv - er us from per - il,

In some places, this final line is repeated:

O on - ly Pure, on - ly Bless - ed One.

Most Ho-ly The-o-to - kos, save us; Most Ho-ly The-o-to - kos, save us!
