

THE LESSER SANCTIFICATION OF WATER

If at Liturgy, the office is served between the second and third repetitions of 'Blessed be the Name', in which case we usually skip from 'O Heavenly King' to 'God is the Lord', on pg. 3.

Priest: Blessed is our God always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. As the priest is saying this, we cross and bow with him.

People: Amen.

Deacon/Clergy: ✠ Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.

People: O Heavenly King, / the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, who art everywhere present and fillest all things; Treasury of Blessings, / and Giver of Life;

✠ come and abide in us, / and cleanse us from every impurity, and save our souls, O Good One.

Reader: ✠ Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (Thrice, with crosses and bows)

✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us.

O Lord, cleanse us from our sins.

O Master, pardon our transgressions.

O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities, for Thy name's sake. ✠

Lord, have mercy. (Thrice)

✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

✠ Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from [the] evil [one].
Priest: For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, ✠ of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Lord, have mercy. (Twelve times)

✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O come, let us worship God our King. (Cross & Bow)

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ,

our King and our God. (Cross & Bow)

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God. (Cross & Bow)

Psalm 142 [143]

Hear my prayer, O Lord, give ear to my supplications in thy truth;
answer me in thy righteousness.

And enter not into judgement with thy servant;

for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul;

he hath smitten my life down to the ground;

he hath made me to dwell in darkness,

as those that have been long dead.

Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me;

my heart within me is troubled.

I remember the days of old, I meditate on all thy works;

I muse on the work of thy hands.

I stretch forth my hands unto thee:

my soul thirsts for thee, like a waterless land.

Hear me speedily, O Lord, my spirit hath fainted away;

turn not away thy face from me,

lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Through the prayers of the glorious archangels and angels,
~ and of all the ranks of heaven, // preserve well thy servants, O Saviour.

Through the prayers of the glorious Apostles, Martyrs, and of all thy saints, //
grant thy mercy to thy people.

Through the prayers of the glorious Unmercenarys, O Theotokos, ~ preserve thy servants, //
as the protection and confirmation of the world.

✠ ✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Let us glorify the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, // saying: O Holy Trinity, save our souls.

✠ ✠ Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O Virgin, who in the latter times ~ didst ineffably conceive and bear thy Creator, // save those who magnify thee.

O blessed Theotokos, open the doors of compassion to us whose hope is in thee, that we may not perish but be delivered from adversity through thee, //
who art the salvation of the Christian race.

Deacon (Priest): Let us pray ✠ to the Lord.

✠ Lord, have mercy.

Priest: For holy art thou, O our God, and unto thee do we send up glory, ✠ to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

And we continue with the Office on pg. 7.

Cause me to hear thy mercy in the morning;
for in thee have I hoped.

Cause me to know, O Lord, the way wherein I should walk;
for unto thee have I lifted up my soul.
Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies;
for I flee unto thee for refuge.

Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God;

thy good spirit shall lead me into the land of righteousness.
For thy name's sake, O Lord,

thou wilt quicken me in thy righteousness;
thou wilt bring my soul out of trouble.

And in thy mercy thou wilt cut off mine enemies,
and thou wilt destroy all them that afflict my soul;
for I am thy servant.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God.
(Thrice, with crosses and bows)

God is the Lord – Tone 4

Deacon (Priest): God is the Lord in the Fourth Tone:

God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us;
blessed is he that comes in the Name of the Lord.

✠ O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever. ✠

People: ✠ God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us; /
blessed is he that comes // in the Name of the Lord.

✠ [Greek Use] All nations compassed me round about;

but in the name of the Lord have I driven them back. ✠ ✠

✠ [Slav Use] Surrounding me, they compassed me about;

but in the name of the Lord have I driven them back. ✠ ✠

✠ I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord. ✠ ✠

✠ The stone which the builders rejected is become the head [stone] of the corner; this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes. ✠ ✠

Troparia – Tone 4

To the Theotokos let us now run most earnestly,
we sinners all and wretched ones, falling down in repentance and crying from the depths of our souls:

○ Sov' reign Lady, help us;
have compassion on us;
make haste, for we are perishing because of our many sins.
Turn not thy servants away with empty hands,
for thee alone do we have // as our only hope.

✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

We who are unworthy, O Theotokos, will never cease to speak of thy pow'rs;
for if thou didst not intercede in prayer,
who would have delivered us from so many dangers?
Who would have kept us free until now?
Let us never forsake thee, O Lady, // for thou dost ever save thy servants from all perils.

Psalm 50 [51]

Have mercy on me, O God, according to Thy great mercy;
and according to the multitude of Thy compassions blot out my transgression.
Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin.
For I know mine iniquity,
and my sin is ever before me.
Against thee only have I sinned and done this evil before thee,
that thou mightest be justified in thy words,
and prevail when Thou art judged.
For behold, I was conceived in iniquities,
and in sins did my mother bear me.
For behold, thou hast loved truth;
the hidden and secret things of thy wisdom hast thou made manifest unto me.

○ Bountiful Lord,
entreated by all the saints and the ranks of heaven, // be merciful to me through her who bore thee.

Spare, O Savior, the souls of our brethren who have died in the hope of life, //
and loose and remit their iniquities.

Rejoice, O Virgin Bride of God, propitiation of the world!
Rejoice, thou pot of divine manna // and golden candlestick of the light.

We praise thee, O God in Trinity, ~ crying out the thrice-holy hymn, // and praying that we may receive salvation.

✠ ✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

○ Virgin who didst bear the Saviour and Lord and Master of the world: //
beseech him to save our souls.

✠ ✠ Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Rejoice, O mountain!
Rejoice, O bush!
Rejoice, thou gate!
Rejoice, O ladder!
~ Rejoice, divine table! //
Rejoice, O Lady, thou help of all!

And we continue:

Troparia of the Office

Through the prayers of thy most pure Mother
and of all thy saints, ○ merciful Lord, //
grant thy mercies to thy people.

By thy prayers, O Lady, incline thy Son and Judge to be merciful to me //
 who am more sinful than any man.
 As is meet we cry out to thee:
 ~ 'Rejoice, O pure Theotokos, Ever-virgin, // praying to be saved by thy prayers.
 Deliver me from eternal fire,
 from the torments that await me,
 O Mother of God, //
 that I may call thee blessed.
 Free us from afflictions ~ and every sickness and danger, // for we make haste to thy sacred protection.
 Strange was the wonder shown in thee, O Mother of God,
 ~ for our God, the Creator of all things, //
 was born of thee according to our likeness.
 Thy temple, O Theotokos, is shown to be a hospital without price for sicknesses, //
 and consolation for afflicted souls.
 O most holy Theotokos,
 who gavest birth to the Saviour,
 save thy servants from perils //
 and every other necessity.
 Deliver thy servants from every threat approaching them, ~ O most holy Lady, // and from every spiritual and bodily harm.
 Through thine intercessions, O Virgin Theotokos, ~ save all who run to thee //
 and deliver them from every necessity and grief.
 Who runs to thy temple, O most pure Theotokos, ~ yet does not quickly receive healing. // both of soul and body?

Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop,
 and I shall be made clean;
 thou shalt wash me,
 and I shall be made whiter than snow.
 Thou shalt make me to hear joy and gladness;
 and the bones that have been humbled shall rejoice.
 Turn thy face away from my sins,
 and blot out all mine iniquities.
 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
 and renew a right spirit within me.
 Cast me not away from thy presence,
 and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.
 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation,
 and establish me with thy governing Spirit.
 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways,
 and the ungodly shall turn back unto thee.
 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God,
 thou God of my salvation;
 and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
 O Lord, thou shalt open my lips,
 and my mouth shall declare thy praise.
 For if thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would have given it;
 but with whole-burnt offerings
 thou wilt not be pleased.
 A sacrifice unto God is a broken spirit;
 a broken and contrite heart, O God,
 Thou wilt not despise.
 Do good, O Lord, in Thy good pleasure unto Zion, that the walls of Jerusalem may be builded up.
 Then shalt Thou be pleased with a sacrifice of righteousness, with oblation and whole-burnt offering;
 then shall they offer bullocks upon Thine altar.

People: God grant them many years! (Thrice)

Concluding Troparia and the Trisagion (Tone 6)
Sung together.

The time that sanctifies all men now draws near,
and the righteous Judge awaits us;
but turn thyself, O soul, to repentance,
and as the harlot cry out with tears: //
'O Lord, have mercy on me.'

O Christ, thou didst bedew with waters the Fountain of healing:
today in the hon'rab temple of the Virgin, through the sprinkling of thy blessing, banish the infirmities of the sick, //

O Physician of our souls and bodies.

As a Virgin who knewest not wedlock,
thou gavest birth, yet didst remain a Virgin,
O Mother without bridegroom,
O Mary Theotokos: //
Entreat Christ our God to save us.

O most holy Virgin Theotokos, direct the works of our hands, and entreat pardon for our sins, //
as we sing the angelic song:

And, immediately, to the Kievan Melody:

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

(Thrice, with crosses and bows)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

Priest: Peace be unto all.

Reader: And to thy spirit.

Deacon (Priest): Wisdom.

and will guide them to the performing of every virtue and the fulfilling of the holy commandments of Christ. ✠ ✠

Again we pray that he will protect them from wrath, famine, plague, earthquake, flood, fire, the sword, foreign invasion, and from every death-bearing wound, and that he will grant them health and length of days, granting them abundance in all things. Let us all say: O Lord, hearken and have mercy. ✠ ✠

Again we pray for the people here present, who await of thee great and rich mercy, for all those who are to dwell herein, for all their family and friends, and for all Christians. ✠ ✠

Priest: Hear us, O God our Saviour, thou hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea; and show mercy, show mercy, O Master, upon us sinners, and be merciful unto us.

Exclamation:

For thou art a merciful God and lovest mankind, and unto thee do we send up glory, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

Dismissal

Priest: Glory to Thee, O Christ, our God and our Hope, glory to Thee.

People: ✠ Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy.

Father (Master), bless.

Priest: May [on Sunday we add: He who rose from the dead,] Christ our true God, through the prayers of His most pure Mother; of the day of the week; [of N., the patron of this home / family, if there be one]; of N., whose memory we keep this day; of the holy and righteous Ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna; and of all the saints; have mercy on us and save us, for He is good and loves mankind.

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

People: ✠ Glory to thee, O Lord, glory to thee.

Then the priest takes the censer and censures around the entire house. Meanwhile, he or the reader reads the following:

Psalm 100 [101]

I will sing of mercy and judgment unto thee, O Lord,
I will sing and be wise in a blameless way.

O when wilt thou come unto me?

I walked in the innocence of my heart,
in the midst of my house.

I have not set before mine eyes any wicked thing;
I have hated the workers of iniquity.

A perverse heart hath not cleaved unto me;

I would not know the wicked man, who turned away from me.
Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off;
with him that has a proud look and an insatiable heart would I not eat.

Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land,
that they may dwell with me;

he that walked in a perfect way, has served me.

He that worketh pride shall not dwell within my house:

he that speaketh unjustly shall not prosper in my sight.

In the morning will I destroy all the wicked of the land;

that I may cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of the Lord.

Deacon (Priest): Wisdom.

Reader: The Reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Hebrews.

Deacon (Priest): Let us attend.

Reader: BRETHEREN, both he that sanctifies and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praises unto thee.

And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part in the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

For truly, he took not upon himself the nature of angels; but he took upon himself the seed of Abraham.

Wherefore in all things it behooved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to help them that are tempted.

Priest: Peace be thee [that readest].

Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. People: ✠ Glory to thee, O Lord, glory to thee.

Troparion – Tone 5

And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord: Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

and likewise now at the entrance of Thy sacred ministers, and of Thy holy angels with them, grant thy peace to this house and mercifully bless it, // saving and illuminating all who are soon to live in it.

Prayer of the Office

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. ✠

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God our Saviour, who wast pleased to enter under the roof of Zacchaeus the Publican, thereby bringing salvation to him and to all his house: do thou thyself now preserve unharmed by any evil thing those who desire to live here, and who offer thee prayers and supplications through us who are unworthy, blessing them and this habitation, keeping their life free from every snare, and abundantly granting them, through thy blessing, every good thing that is profitable for them.

For unto thee are due all glory, honour, and worship, together with thine unoriginate Father, ✠ and thine all-holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

Priest: Peace be unto all. (We bow our heads to receive the peace)

People: And to thy spirit.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord.

People: ✠ To Thee, O Lord.

Priest: O Master, Lord our God, who dwellest on high and lookest down upon the lowly; who didst bless the house of Laban at the entrance of Jacob, and the house of Potiphar at the coming of Joseph; who didst bless the house of Aminadab with the carrying in of the Ark; and who, in the days of the Advent in the flesh of thy Christ and our God, didst grant salvation to the house of Zacchaeus: do thou thyself bless also this house, and compass those who are about to abide in it with the fear of thee, keeping them unharmed by adversaries. Send down thy blessing from thy dwelling on high, blessing and increasing every good thing in this house.

For thine it is so show mercy and to save us, O our God, and unto thee do we send up glory: ✠ to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

The Litany of Peace Over the Water

Supplicatory Prayer of the Office

Priest: O Lord our God, great in counsel and wondrous in deeds, Maker of all creation, who keepest thy covenant and thy mercy towards those who love thee and keep thy commandments, who acceptest the compunctionate tears of all those in need; - for this was the cause of thy coming in the form of a servant, not terrifying us with phantoms, but granting true bodily healing, and saying 'Behold, thou art made whole; sin no more;' and with clay thou didst restore the eyes of the blind man, commanding them to be washed, and by thy word didst make the light to dwell in them, putting to confusion the waves of adverse passions, drying up the salty sea of this life, and subduing the waves of sensual desires heavy to bear: - O King who lovest mankind, who hast granted us to be clothed with a snow-white robe by water and the Spirit, do thou, through our partaking of this water and through the sprinkling with the same, send down upon us thy blessing that washes away the filth of the passions.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the thing that walketh in darkness, nor for the mishap and demon of noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand;

but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge,

even the Most High,

thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee,

neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands,

lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the asp and basilisk;

the lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath set his hope upon Me,

therefore will I deliver him;

I will shelter him, because he hath known My name.

He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him:

I will be with him in trouble;

I will deliver him, and glorify him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him My salvation.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God.

(Thrice, with crosses and bows)

thee do we send up glory, together with thy ✠ Father who is without beginning, and thy most holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

People: ✠ Amen.

Priest: Peace be unto all. (We bow our heads to receive the peace)

People: And to thy spirit.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord.

People: ✠ To Thee, O Lord.

Priest: Incline thine ear and hearken unto us, O Lord who didst accept baptism in the Jordan and didst sanctify the waters. Bless us all who, by the bowing of our necks, outwardly show thee our servitude; and count us worthy to be filled with thy sanctification through partaking of this water and being sprinkled with it. And may it bring us, O Lord, health of soul and body.

Exclamation:

For thou art the sanctification of our souls and bodies, and unto thee do we end up glory, thanksgiving, and worship, together with thy ✠ Father who is without beginning, and thy most holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Blessing of the Water

The priest then blesses the water in crosswise form with the Precious Cross, plunging it into the water thrice. Each time, he sings the opening line of the Troparion, in Tone 1, which is then taken up by the people:

Priest: O Lord, save thy people...

People: ...and bless thine inheritance.

This is done thrice, after which we begin our Cross Procession, if one is being offered.

Blessing of Oil

If being done in a home so as to bless it, the priest may also bless oil before the procession, making the sign of the Cross over the oil thrice, saying each time:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then, the Deacon (Priest): Let us pray ✠ to the Lord.

✠ Lord, have mercy.

O Lord our God, do thou look down now with mercy on the prayer of me, thy lowly and unworthy servant, and send down the grace of thy most holy Spirit upon this oil and hallow it, that it may be for the sanctification of this place and the house that has been constructed upon it, unto the expelling of every contrary power and satanic snare.

Exclamation:

For thou it is who dost bless and sanctify all things, O Christ our God, and unto thee do we send up glory, together with thy ✠ Father who is without beginning, and thy most holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

As the people, church (and city) are blessed, we sing:

People: O Lord, save thy people, and bless thine inheritance.

Grant victories to the Orthodox Christians over their adversaries; and by virtue of thy Cross, // preserve thy habitation.

If desired, we may also sing in Slavonic:

Спасі, Гóсподи, дюдi Твоя	Spasi, Góspodi, ljudi Tvoja
и благослови достояніе Твое;	i blagoslovi dostojanije Tvoje;

and/or in Greek (or any other language, as desired):

Σώσον Κύριε τὸν λαόν σου      Soson Kyrie ton laon su

Do thou thyself, therefore, O Lord, the Confirmation of those who have set their hope on thee and the Wall of Strength for those whose expectation is in thee: renounce, drive away, and put to flight every diabolical action, every satanic invasion, every slander and contrary power lying under this roof, from those who have been seized by him, and from those who walk about under it, bearing thy Cross, the sign of victory, dreadful against demons, and calling upon thy good Name.

Yea, O Lord, who didst drive away a legion of demons, and who, having restrained the dumb and deaf demon and the unclean spirit, didst command it to depart from the man and never to return again; who didst utterly destroy the whole army of our invisible enemies, and didst impart wisdom unto the faithful who have known thee, saying, 'Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy': do thou thyself, O Master, keep everyone in this house beyond every harm and temptation, delivering them from the terror of the night, from the arrow that flieth by day, from that which walks about in the darkness, and from the calamity and demon of noonday.

Let thy servants, thy handmaidens, thy children, and thine infants, delighting in thy help, and protected by the angelic hosts, cry out in faith, with one accord: 'The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear; what can man do unto me?' And again, 'I will fear no evil, for thou art with me.' For Thou, O God, art my Confirmation, the mighty Master, the Prince of Peace, the Father of the age to come, and thy kingdom is an eternal kingdom.

Exclamation:

For unto thee are due all glory, honour, and worship, together with thine unoriginate Father, and thine all-holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

Peace and Prayer of Bowing

Priest: Peace be unto all. (We bow our heads to receive the peace)

People: And to thy spirit.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord.

People: ✠ To Thee, O Lord.

For unto thee are due all glory, honour, and worship, together with thine unoriginate Father, ✠ and thine all-holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. R. Amen.

#3, when Blessing an Existing Home

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. ✠

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God our Saviour, the True Light, who wast baptized by John in the Jordan to renew all men by the washing of regeneration, and who didst deign to enter under the roof of Zacchaeus the Publican, thereby bringing salvation to him and to all his house: do thou thyself keep safe from all harm those who dwell here; grant them thy blessing, purification, and bodily health; and grant all their petitions which are unto salvation and life everlasting.

For blessed art thou, O Lord, together with thine unoriginate Father, ✠ and thine all-holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. R. Amen.

#4, if the Home has been Troubled by Evil Spirits

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. ✠

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God of our Salvation, Son of the Living God, who art borne on the Cherubim, above all Principalities, Authorities, Powers, and Dominions: thou art great and dreadful to all that are round about thee; thou hast set heaven as a vault, and hast made earth in thy might; thou didst order the universe in thy wisdom; thou causest that which is under the heavens to shake from its very foundations, yet its pillars are unshaken; thou speakest to the sun and it does not shine, thou sealest the stars; thou dost interdict the seas and dry them up; Authorities and Powers hide at thy wrath, and the rocks tremble at thee.

Thou hast shattered the gates of brass and hast broken the iron bars [of hell]. Thou hast bound the mighty one and smashed his vessels; thou hast cast down the tyrant by thy Cross and hast drawn out the serpent with the hook of thy Humanity; having cast him down, thou hast bound him with chains in the gloom of Tartarus.

If desired or deemed necessary, the priest may repeatedly say:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: by the sprinkling of this holy water, let every evil, demonic activity be put to flight. Amen.

If also using oil, the priest also blesses the four walls of the house:

This house is blessed through the anointing of this holy oil, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Once all has been blessed, we return to the center of the church, or place where the office was served, and, while the faithful venerate the Cross, these stichera are sung to conclude the blessing.

If the number of faithful is too great, the veneration of the Cross is done after the Dismissal, while the stichera are usually retained:

(Tone 2)

Make us worthy of thy gifts, O Virgin Theotokos, disregarding our iniquities, and granting healing, O most pure Virgin, // to those who in faith receive thy blessing.

(Tone 4)

Possessing a fountain of healings,

O holy Unmercenaries, grant healing to all those entreating it, for ye have been counted worthy of great gifts from our Saviour, the ever-flowing Fount.

For the Lord has said to you, as to those equal to the Apostles in zeal:

‘Behold, I have given you power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every sickness and ev’ry disease.’

Therefore, since ye lived nobly according to his commandments, freely have ye received, and freely ye give, // healing the suff rings of our souls and bodies.

(Tone 4)

Look down upon the supplications of thy servants,

O all-immaculate Lady, crushing the savage assaults that beset us,

and removing all afflictions from us.

For we have thee alone as a sure and faithful anchor, and have acquired thy protection.

Let us not be put to shame, O Lady, when we call upon thee.

Hasten to make supplication for those who cry out to thee in faith:

Rejoice, O Lady, thou help of all, //

the joy and shelter and salvation of our souls.

(Tone 8)

O Lady, accept the prayers of thy servants, // and deliver us from all necessity and grief.

The Litany of Fervent Supplication

Deacon (Priest): Have mercy on us, O God, according to thy great mercy, we pray thee, hearken and have mercy. ✠

People: ✠ Lord, have mercy. (Thrice)

Again we pray that he will keep this city [or: village] and this holy church [or: holy monastery] and every city and country from wrath, famine, plague, earthquake, flood, fire, the sword, foreign invasion, civil war, and sudden death; that our good God, who loves mankind, will be gracious and conciliatory, and turn away and dispel all the wrath stirred up against us and all sickness, and may deliver us from his righteous chastisement which impendeth against us, and have mercy on us. ✠

People: ✠ Lord, have mercy. (40 times, or simply thrice)

Priest: Hear us, O God our Saviour, thou hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea; and show mercy, show mercy, O Master, upon us sinners, and be merciful unto us.

Exclamation:

For thou art a merciful God and lovest mankind, and unto thee do we send up glory, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

As necessary, we may insert the following prayers; otherwise, continue on the bottom of pg. 21:

Supplicatory Prayer(s), as Desired

On bended knee. If blessing a new home, we pray later; cf. pg. 24.

#1, for Laying the Foundation of a New House

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. ✠

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God Almighty, Creator and Fashioner of all, who didst make heaven with understanding, and didst establish the earth on its foundation: do thou look down upon thy servants N., who desire, in the might of thy strength, to raise up a home for habitation, and to set it up with a building. Do thou establish it upon a firm rock, to so that, according to thy divine voice in the Gospel, neither wind nor water, nor anything whatsoever, may be able to harm it. Be thou well-pleased to bring it to completion, and deliver those who desire to live in it from every snare of the adversary.

For thine is the might, and thine is the kingdom, and to the power, and the glory: ✠ of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. ✠ Amen.

#2, when One is about to Move into a New Home

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. ✠

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God our Saviour, who wast pleased to enter under the roof of Zacchaeus the Publican, thereby bringing salvation to him and to all his house: do thou thyself now preserve unharmed by any evil thing those who desire to live here, and who offer thee prayers and supplications through us who are unworthy, blessing them and this habitation, keeping their life free from every snare, and abundantly granting them, through thy blessing, every good thing that is profitable for them.
